

ADMITTANCE TO BLUE JAY GAMES

Most people who attend Jamestown School District Blue Jay games or contests are expected to pay an admission price. Admission is charged for basketball, football, hockey, volleyball, gymnastics, soccer, swimming, track, wrestling, cross country, baseball and drama. Senior citizens can get a Golden Age Pass from District Office at no charge. Prices are subject to change each year.

Examples of who must pay admission are as follows:

1. The children and relatives of administrators, school board members, staff members - professional and support staff, and coaches.
2. Non-school organizations such as Boy Scouts, 4-H groups, church groups, Just Say No Clubs, State Hospital youth groups, Anne Carlsen Center for Children groups, retirement home groups, college groups and others.
3. Former staff - teachers and administrators and spouses.
4. Senior citizens (age 65 and older) who do not hold a Golden Age Pass
5. Select individuals or groups.

Listed below are the exception to this regulation:

1. Each employee receives a picture school ID badge which will be present at the gate for entrance to an activity*. An additional activity pass will be given to each employee for their guest. The pass must be presented at the gate.
 upon termination of employment, the employee is required to return ID badge.*
2. School Board members will receive a pass and an additional activity pass for a guest. The pass must be presented at the gate.
3. Coaches and administrators from out of town who show an EDC/WDA or Coaches Association pass.
4. Children who are not yet in school.
5. Athletes who are a part of the team playing that evening.
6. Members and coaches of half-time entertaining groups.
7. A maximum of one game per year declared to be "youth night" and approved by the Activities Director. This means that elementary or junior high players could be admitted free so long as it is in the same sport.
8. The band members, if they are playing.
9. Cheerleaders for that sport.
10. All game officials, workers, ticket takers, and security.
11. Members of the media who are working the game.
12. Former Board members and spouses living in the region.

When parents of players, cheerleaders, student managers, etc. plan to attend Parents' night and don't have a season ticket, a complimentary pass may be obtained from the Activities Director for this activity.

Questions or doubts concerning admission should be directed to the Activities Director.

All other questions or requests should be made in writing to the Activity Committee of the Jamestown
School Board at least 30 days in advance of the game.
